Every Life is Worth Remembering

What is a Funeral Celebrant?

A celebrant is a person who is trained and certified to meet the needs of families during their time of loss.

If you are not a member of a place of worship or prefer not to have a clergy person perform the funeral ceremony; one of our Certified Funeral Celebrants can work with you to provide a service of remembrance that is personalized to reflect the life style of your loved one.

Why Use a Certified Celebrant?

It is important that you and your family know that you are being served by someone who understands your needs and is prepared to offer the very best service possible.

The Certified Funeral Celebrants on staff at McComas Funeral Home have received professional training from InSite Institute, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

We are dedicated to providing a service that gives each family a personalized experience and healthy first step on their grief journey.

What Does a Certified Celebrant Offer the Family?

- A Celebrant has been specifically trained to design a service for your loved one that is completely personal, incorporating those unique stories, songs, and experiences that defined the loved one.
- A Celebrant will schedule a special family time for your family to share memories, anecdotes, and special moments in your loved one's life. The essence of the service will be based upon the remembrances of the family.
- The Celebrant will consult with you to help design a service that best reflects and memorializes the life of your loved one.
- The Celebrant can serve at a funeral service, memorial service, graveside service, anniversary tribute, tree planting, bench dedication, or any other gathering designed to honor the deceased.

What is the Cost?

The Celebrant will spend approximately 10 hours in preparation for your service as well as the expense of maintaining a resource library and on-going training.

See your Funeral Service Professional for pricing.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ONE OF OUR CERTIFIED FUNERAL CELEBRANTS WILL BE GLAD TO SPEAK WITH YOU.
